Have Peace One with Another

A man tested the strength of a glass container by using it as a hammer to drive a nail successfully into a wooden plank. Next, he took a pea-sized marble and dropped it through the neck of the bottle. When the marble hit bottom, the container shattered. Resistant to blows inflicted from the outside, the bottle fell victim to destruction from within. What an outstanding example of what can happen to the beautiful bride of Christ, His church.

What atheists and enemies of truth could never do from the outside, selfish and shallow church members can accomplish from the inside.

While peace and unity cannot be had at the expense of truth (Proverbs 23:23), it should be a priority of all purchased persons to seek to live in peace with their brethren. Notice God's words throughout time on this subject:

“Seek peace and pursue it” (Psalm 34:14).

“If it is possible, as much as depends on you, live peaceably with all men” (Romans 12:18).

“Endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace” (Ephesians 4:3).

“Let him seek peace and pursue it” (1 Peter 3:11).

There is no doubt that it is the responsibility of every child of God to do his best. Wendell Winkler. Heart Diseases and their Cure.
