JESUS SOUGHT COMFORT FROM HIS FATHER IN PRAYER

In Gethsemane, Jesus prayed as no man had ever prayed.

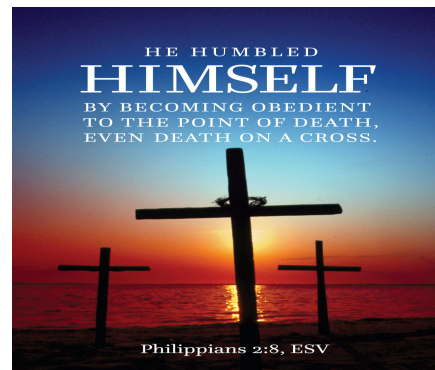

He wrestled with severe mental anguish (Matthew 26:37–38). Mark says He was “troubled” (ekthambeo, “astonish utterly; affright”) and “deeply distressed” (ademoneo, “in distress of mind”) (Mark 14:33).

If you had visited that spot at daybreak, you could have found a damp place where His sweat dripped during those prayers. Many believe He prayed until His capillaries burst into His sweat glands and literally sweated blood (Luke 22:44–45). If so, when you found the dampened earth, it would have been tinged red.

Think of the power of prayer. When God’s child lifts his tear-stained face to heaven and says, “Father,” the God of the universe turns His head and bends His ear to listen. Imagine! What a joy to know that “God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble” (Psalms 46:1). He knows (Matthew 6:8); He cares (1 Peter 5:7). House to House-Heart to Heart Don’t try to climb Golgotha on your feet. Use your knees.
