Minister, Bro Barry L Gainey; Our gospel meeting was a great success. With that being said it was due to the participation of the members of this congregation. On behalf of myself and the elders I want to thank those who put together the song fest, the sisters that organize and worked on the fellowship dinner, our brothers who worked in the services and our ushers who are watching out for our safety while we are in services. We also thank the members for your participation in attending the meeting. May we continue to do that which pleases God, and may God bless this congregation.

Sis. Linda Tillman & The Gaines Family; thank you for your kind expressions of sympathy; for the beautiful floral arrangements, cards, prayers, monetary donation, calls and the resolution.

- Mistrials (Acts 17:31).

- Baptisms (Matthew 24:31-46).
- Invitation songs (Matthew 25:10).

There will be a righteous Judge who will give a fair trial to every individual. All will give an account. An eternal sentence will be handed down based upon one's life and acceptance or rejection of Christ's sacrifice.

There will be no parole, stay of execution, or pardon for the lost. All of us will need abundant grace to be able to stand at His right side, and Scripture tells us how that is extended. We must prepare for that in this life (Hebrews 9:27). House to House, Heart to Heart, Neal Pollard, Denver, CO.

Six Things Not Found At The Judgement

The Bible speaks often of the moment of reckoning, when the righteous and wicked dead (John 5; 28-29) and all living (Matthew 25; 31-33) will stand before the King of kings to give account for the conduct of the body (2 Corinthians 5:10).

As we attempt paint a mental picture of the judgment Day, some things should not be envisioned because they will not be there.

- Unbelievers (Philippians 2:10; Revelation 1;5-7).
- Material Possessions (2 Peter 3:10).
