The Gospel Is for All

Free-even the poor can obtain it: The poor have the gospel preached to them. (Matthew 11:5).

Plain- even the uneducated can understand it; “Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge” (Ephesians 3:1-6).

Equalizing-the humble are raised by it and the proud are humbled by it (1Peter 5:6: James 4:10).

Powerful-the weak are strengthened by it; “it is the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believeth” (Romans 1:16).

Encouraging-the depressed are encouraged by it: “I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee. So that we may boldly say, the Lord is my helper and I will not fear what man shall do unto me” (Hebrews 13:5-6).

Comforting- the sorrowful are consoled by it: “Wherefore comfort one another with these words” (1 Thessalonians 4:13-18)

Compensating-obedient believers are rewarded by it for their works of faith and labors of love (Mark 10:28-30).

Building a House is not the same as Building a Home construction workers were waiting for the sound of the gun that would mark the beginning of construction on a house in Palmer, Alaska.

On July 21, 1983, 288

They were going to be timed to see how fast they could build a house. They were encouraged by a crowd of 6,000 spectators and a country band. The record they set was incredible. In just 3 hours, 53 minutes, and 59.49 seconds the lucky couple, Rocky and Pat Weldon of Anchorage, stood on the steps of their brand-new house. The two-bedroom house cost $80,000.

To top things off, a furniture company then furnished the house in less than four minutes. “Instant houses” are possible, but not instant homes. Homes take time to build.
